

Tommy san

I am so sorry that I didn't notice the email from you via TCC.

Yes I had the Emerald City ever.
I don't remember from whom I got the Emerald City.
Probably purchased from Rand but I am not sure.

Golf Style Company took full two days to shoot my collections.
More than half of the classic putters in that book were my collections.
(Some of the putters have already been sold.) Therefore, the hand made putter on page 128 is most likely your putter.

I still have some hand made putters which are in The Cameron Collector book.
Please let me know if you are interested in them.
Thank you very much for your patience.

Mac Suzuki

Mac san,

I left you a message on the TCC but I see that you have not been active there for several months. I asked Rand if he had your email address and this is the one he gave me.

My name is Tommy Parker and I am an avid Scotty collector, mostly the older pre-titleist Camerons. I was recently very fortunate and honored to be able to purchase one of the "emerald city" hand made from Santo Silvestro (Raiders on TCC) . The putter is COA #A024104. Based on my research on TCC and from what Santo told me, it is my understanding that you originally owned this putter and that Santo purchased it from you.

VOG tells me that he thinks you may have originally purchased it from Rand but he was not sure. I also believe from studying the picture that this is the putter pictured on page 128 of Japanese "The Cameron Collector" book. I would like to be able to validate that. Mostly, I am just trying to learn all that I can about the putter and its history and any information that you can provide me about the putter and its history would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you very much,
Tommy Parker

Handmade with a a emerald green snow and "C" sight dot.
It is in an original condition but used.
There are many scratches and some dings on the putter.
Also there are rust on the putter.
I would rate the condition 7 out of 10.
It has a stepped steal shaft, and a black studio style grip.
It will come with a black milled headcover.
The spec is 34", 483g, C3+.

I am asking for US$3,800.00 shipped and paypaled.

Thank you very much.

I had the honor and privilege of having Mac San buy one of my Limited Edition Putter's.

He's a true collector and a gentleman.

Thanks Mac San,

Pat
